
Godzilla vs. Astrogodzilla Book version

By Finn Duffy and Koko

A new threat is born in the deepest reaches of outer space.

Dubbed Astrogodzilla, it is learned the albino Godzilla clone was created from the cells of Biollante, and has come to Earth to conquer it.

Upon arriving, the twin-tailed beast psychically manipulates the gifted Miki Saegusa and the young Little Godzilla, and forces the two to do its bidding.

This captures the attention of Godzilla, who arrives in Japan to rescue his mind-controlled son.

An epic showdown unfolds between Astrogodzilla and Godzilla, who is assisted by the new G-Force weapon Moguera and Mothra, as well as a freed Little Godzilla, in order to put an end to the cosmic doppelganger's reign of terror.
